Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher Raymond Pioneer, Is Laid To Rest

Funeral services for one of Raymond's earliest settlers, Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher who passed away after a short illness at the age of 87, was held on Tuesday with a large attendance of relatives (over sixty) and friends.

The First Ward Choir under the direction of Eleanor Hudson with Beth Walker as organist furnished the music and as the opening number sang, "O My Father" after which the invocation was offered by A. W. Kirkham. "Beside Still Waters" was sung by Gen. Hawkins, Laura Watson and Jeanine Jensen followed by an organ solo by Hazel Fairbanks. Bishop Hicken, who conducted the meeting, was the first speaker after which the trio sang "Lead Me Gently Home". After President Walker's comforting words the choir sang as the closing number "Abide With Me." The benediction was offered by Dr. Harris Walker.

Pallbearers were close friends and neighbors of the deceased, A. Hague, Cliff Nalder, Lloyd Dahl, Leslie Palmer, Joe Kirkham, Godfrey Holmes, Murray Hoff and Glen Shields, the oldest grandchild. The grave was dedicated by her son Louis.

She leaves to mourn her passing four daughters, Bertha of Arizona and Waterton Lakes, Tay of Los Angeles, Jane of Raymond and Margaret of Lethbridge, three sons Will of Vancouver, Kimball of Salt Lake and Louis of Raymond. She was predeceased by her husband 1936 and a son in 1948. All of her surviving children attended the funeral as well as many of her 31 grandchildren and 73 great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were married in the St. George Temple in Dec. 7, 1884 and in 1903 they made the move from the comforts of their home in Meadow, Utah to help settle this barren land. They had a family of six at that time, the youngest being only a few weeks old; another daughter, Blanche, died before they left Utah.

She had a very interesting and colorful life, being associated with Civic and Church activities practically all her days and working in many of the auxiliary organizations. She was a Counsellor to Amy Allen in the First Stake Primary organized in Raymond for many years. Mrs. Fisher also taught the Religion Classes which were held at the High School before the Seminary was organized.

She had been a very active member of the Red Cross for a considerable length of time, and until just recently was a member of the Women's Institute.

A leading Raymond citizen, George Ralph, was very pleased this week to receive a pleasant note from his friend, the PFRA engineer, who is presently a patient in a Lethbridge hospital. The note was to thank Mr. Ralph for a beautiful bouquet of spring flowers.

Home and School Meeting Held At Wrentham

A very lively Home and School meeting was held in the Home Economics room Tuesday evening with a good crowd attending. New officers for the coming season were elected. Mr. Jack Tilbrook will act as president. Mrs. Lois Dunk as vice president and Mrs. Ethel Rollog as secretary.

Reports on the provincial convention were given by Mrs. Elda Mueller, Mrs. Tois Dunk and Mrs. Edna Metzger. Each speaker dealt with a different phase of the convention.

Following are some points brought up at the convention. While the Home and School Association does not sanction the hiring of 6 week trainees, it suggests that communities where these people are hired treat them well and encourage them to go on with their training. Encouragement should also be given to local students to become teachers.

Help for handicapped children may be obtained through the Home and School Association.

The banner for this month's attendance went to the grade 7, 8, and 9 room.

Lunch was served at the adjournment of the meeting.

Old Friends Bid Adeau At Foremost

The school Cafeteria was the scene of a very successful farewell party held in honor of three couples, Mr. and Mrs. Albertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ayers, Mrs. Albertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ayers, families are moving to Lethbridge. Friends from Foremost and all the surrounding districts turned out to bid our old friends adieu.

The first hour was spent in playing whist and bridge, after which Mr. Reynar the chairman seated the honored guests at a table at the front of the hall. Mrs. Albertson was then presented a corsage by Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Ayers was presented with one by Mrs. Beatty, and Mrs. Folkins was presented by Mrs. Hood, Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Beatty now reside in Lethbridge and came to Foremost especially for this occasion.

A short program followed. Mr. Geo. Muz played a violin solo, accompanied by Mr. Dack. Mr. Reynar recited one of his delightful French Canadian poems; Mrs. A. Medhurst, accompanied by Mrs. Terriff rendered two beautiful violin selections. The Lutheran Male Choir favored us with two lovely hymns and Rev. L. Harbour, accompanied by himself sang a solo.

Mr. Reynar, on behalf of the community and district, presented Mr. and Mrs. Albertson with a coffee table, Mr. and Mrs. Ayers with a trillight and Mr. and Mrs. Folkins with a mirror. He asked them to remember their old friends in Foremost and to come back occasionally for visits.

Mr. Albertson, Mr. Ayers and Mr. Folkins then thanked the members of the community. They spoke for a few minutes about their early days they had. They hoped to keep the beautiful friendship they had made even though they were leaving.

Some of the old timers, now residing in Lethbridge and those in Foremost who were special friends of the guests were called upon for impromptu speeches. All expressed regret at having to say farewell to such dear members of our community but spent the best wishes of the community with them to their new homes. The party concluded after a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Irene Cooper was hostess to the Readers Progress Club on Wednesday at which Mrs. Idale Kenney reviewed the book "We found Peace" the story of a young couple who finally settled on a ranch in the foothills of Alberta. Special guests were Mesdames Della Woolf, Lucile Shaw and Hazel Paxman.

Jim Grant spent the week-end in town with his wife and family.

Barbara Wing spent a brief holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wing before returning to the BYU on Thurs. to attend Summer School.

Local C of C Working For Natural Gas For Raymond

The members of the executive of the Raymond and District Chamber of Commerce met with the Hon. L. C. Halmrast to discuss problems concerning this district. In addition to the subject of the Ridge Reservoir Road and the hardsurfacing of the Welling-Cradock Road a plan was set out for the promotion of natural gas for this district. A mid-summer meeting will be held with Mr. Halmrast in this connection to follow up the present undertakings of the Chamber. At this time Mr. Halmrast will give a report on the governments efforts in this regard.

As part of the Polio Test Area, 100 Raymond School Children were chosen this week to receive polio serum shots or a clear solution - although it was not even known to the Doctors in charge, Drs. Walker and Taylor, who received which injection. Approximately 11 children from each of the grade one, two and three class rooms participated in this experiment to make up the number assigned for this area.

Lets hope that before more than a year or two has passed all the children can receive the serum and not on an experimental basis.

Past Honored Royal Lady Amanda Wolfe presented D. D. Supreme Honored Royal Lady Oberan with a lovely corsage.

Lady Vesta Ayers, who leaves shortly to make her home in Lethbridge was also presented with a gift, by the past Honored Royal Lady Wolfe.

Immediately following the installation of officers, District Deputy Supreme Honored Royal Lady Alborne presented the past Honored Royal Lady with her "Jewel". She also commended the Foremost ladies on their year's work.

After the closing of the meeting lunch was served. Since this was the anniversary of the installation of this lodge a beautifully decorated birthday cake with one candle graced the table for the occasion.

Rulon Litchfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ern Litchfield, returned home on Saturday from the BYU where he has completed his third year in Accounting and Business Administration.

Graduates Honored At Stirling Commencement

Commencement exercises of the Stirling High School, held Thursday June 10, began with the singing of O'Canada, and a Welcome Speech by Morris Michelson, after which a delicious banquet was enjoyed by 92 students, guests, teachers and parents.

The tables were tastefully decorated with bouquets of Tulips and Lilies.

The tulips were donated by Mrs. Graham of the teaching staff. The toast to the Graduates was tendered by Gary Clawson. The reply was given by Ray Hardy.

David Michelson, as Valedictorian, spoke briefly, but to the point.

A saxophone solo by Douglas Hardy followed. The principal of the school Carl Young, spoke of the good fellowship and cooperation between students and teachers. He reminded the Students that this was the beginning of a life which was not so sheltered as their home life had been, and pictured some of the difficulties, or 'bumps', they might expect in the world outside of school.

They must be able to shoulder responsibilities was his conclusion.

The students then arose to receive the good wishes and applause of those present.

A trio, "My Best To You" was sung by Ludene Erickson, Myrna Hartley, and Elsie Perrett, accompanied by Wilma Hougren at the piano.

A humorous reading in the form of a confidential conversation between two girl students, Joanne Spackman and Helen Michelson, was a spicy bit of gossip, at the expense of the students and teachers.

"Four Ace and a Spade," Douglas Hardy, Gary Clawson, Heber Perrett, David Michelson and Ray Hardy, accompanied by Miss Schatz at the piano, gave lively renditions of, "Think of Someone Who Loves You" and "When You and I Were Young Magie."

The program concluded with "God Save the Queen, after which presentations were made by Joanne Spackman to the Teachers.

Mr. Young and Mr. Leneucha received leather belts, while Mrs. Jacobs was presented with a bottle of lilac perfume and a lovely embroidered handkerchief.

The rest of the evening was given over to dancing.

Gospel Meeting Held At Skiff

The Fellowship of Gospel Churches convened for its Annual Meeting at the church of the Skiff Gospel Mission, Skiff, Alta., from June 3rd to 6th. Missionaries from Pakistan, Africa and N.W.T., together with pastors and delegates from several provinces of Canada comprised the meeting. Two young men were ordained and two received license.

Among other business the following resolution were unanimously adopted. 1. That a letter be sent to the Readers' Digest complimenting them on the publishing of an article concerning the evils of comic books, so called, in the current issue of that magazine.

2. That a letter be sent to Radio Station CKXL of Calgary, commending them on their presentation of a short program concerning the evils of drunken driving.

3. That a letter be sent to the Legislature commending them on the program of laws recently passed in which the penalties for drunken driving have been made far more severe.

4. That we commend Premier E. C. Manning for the stand he has taken against drunken driving. Respectfully submitted, E. B. Anderson, Secretary

Young, Robbie Perks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perks, had the painful experience recently of having a two inch silver run under his thumbnail into his finger. He brushed his hand along the edge of the brush holder on the blackboard at school when he suffered the mishap. Dr. Walker said when he pulled it out that it was the longest he had ever seen a small boy have.

Hollywood Tea Is Great Success

The men of the Raymond United Church sponsored a most successful Tea in the Legion Hall on Sat. June 12 with all proceeds in aid of the United Church Building Funds.

Attired becomingly in fashions, both modern and "out-dated", the Glamour Stars entertained as they served the highly amused crowd who laughed spontaneously, continuously and uproariously at the unexpected antics mannerisms of the "would-be ladies."

Receiving at the door were Mesdames H. Pentland, a cute modern lass, and Frankie Ball, a knockout in latest Parisienne gown complete with accent, tottering daintily in high-heeled red sandals, while at the door sat our more sedately dressed Madame Teddy Wagstaff, capably handling the ticket sale.

The efficient and wide-awake servers, Mesdames Johnny Nevrate, Mikey Hoffer, Eddie Pommen and Ray Atwood were conspicuous in latest hair styles and hats complete with feathers, huge bows, and colorful poses, dangling earring and knee length gowns.

The Bake Table convenors received full share of attention and Mesdames George Hougren and Caesar E'Cluse in "boyish Bobs," aprons and latest sweater fashions had a complete sell-out, thereby donating approximately $40.00 to the Fund.

The Fish Pond, too, was well supported and Mesdames Allan James, Joey Thompson, Roy Minion attracted the crowd with their charming and beautiful costumes, as well as with their antics and ready wit.

Late Spring Wedding For Arta-Gwen Atwood

A late spring wedding was performed by Bishop Golden Snow last week when Arta Gwen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Atwood became the bride of Lawrence Steffen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steffen of Munston, Saskatchewan, at a double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was escorted in by her father to the strains of the wedding march played by Emma Dahl, wore a cocktail length gown beautifully styled with a lace bolero over a strapless bodice and a bouffant tulle, sparkling with sequins, skirt over satin. Her shoulder length veil misted from a dainty coronet while she carried in her arms a bouquet of red roses.

The maid of honor was Mary Winkler who wore a gown of yellow with Pat Bennett and Carol Heggie as her other attendants in dark blue and dusty rose. Each girl carried a bouquet of assorted spring flowers.

Best man was Roger Nelson while ushers were Bruce McClay and Gerald Bennett. During the signing of the Register Joe McLean rendered "I Love You Truly".

The many guests who called during the evening young to wish the young couple happiness, were greeted by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Atwood, Marie Cooper was in charge of the Guest Book. Janice West and Laltue Jensen arranged the lovely gifts. The guests were received by the bridal party under a lovely archway which was entwined with roses, as was the white picket fence on either side.

A delightful lunch was served by Norma Still, Gwen Lee, Mona Terry, Marlene Wilde, Barbara Douglas, Donna Smith and Camille Larson prepared by Eleanor Cook, Amelal Hartley, Helen Babb, Dorothy Jones and Georgia Heggie.

Joe McLean as Master of Ceremonies, introduced the following numbers: a vocal solo and piano solo by Virginia Rolison and Fanny Litchfield duets from Grace Selman and Maxine Dahl, accordion solos by Glen Atwood followed by the Toast to the bride given by T. T. Mendenhall.

For going away the new bride donned a grey suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Joan Jessop spent the week-end in town with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Jessop and family before leaving for an eight week course at the hospital in Penoka.

In the last issue comparison in price was made of 1 lb of coffee and 1 bus. of wheat. It is not as bad yet as in the '30's. It took almost 1 1/4 bus. of wheat to buy 1 lb. of cranberries for our Xmas dinner and with the prices that way we only bought 1 lb! Wheat was 19 cents per bus. and cranberries were 25 cents per lb.

Mr. R. Dixon had the misfortune to back into his fuel tank stand with his tractor and knock it over. With the help of his good spouse he man- aged to get it upright again with a very small loss of gas.

Mrs. P. Ehness while taking the children to school one day in the car, collided with a truck driven by Mr. McFall. The collision took place south of Etzikom where the road has been freshly gravelled. Damage was done to both car and truck but no one was injured.

Mr. Kent Rogers, was a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Terriff.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. F. Collins and Mrs. Schinnour are also hospitalized in Lethbridge.

SKIFF NEWS

Friends of Mrs. Leila Bailie will be pleased to know she is home from the hospital after a minor operation.

Mrs. Ed Lonsdale returned home from Edmonton last week. Mr. Lonsdale remained in Edmonton where he is a patient in the University Hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wutzre Sr. motored to Radium Hot Springs where they expect to be for a week.

Word was received in Skiff that Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Norgard have a new baby boy born June 13 in Lethbridge. The Norgard family moved to Lethbridge from Skiff last April.

It seems there are a few cases of measles in the community. Victims at the present time are little Philip Newton, 8 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nolin Newton and Elinor Amlin, 15 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Amlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Yancie of Lethbridge have a new baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Taylor of Lethbridge will be moving to Foremost where Mr. Taylor will be employed by the UGG Elevator there.

NEMISCAM NOTES

Mrs. K. Hulsman has returned to Lacombe for the remainder of June. She will return to the farm when school is out bringing her son, Ronnie with her.

Church was held at Thistle Ridge School on Sunday with Rev. Harbour officiating.

Mr. H. Harrison has returned from Lethbridge where he has been under doctor's care for the past week.

Mrs. E. Laqua was hostess last Wednesday at a tea in honor of Mrs. G. Bailey of Tofield. The neighbors and guests from Foremost spent a pleasant afternoon chatting after which a delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. G. Bailey left Friday to return home to Tofield after a two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. Laqua.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Petersen, Mrs. J. Harty and children spent a day in Shelby last week.

The Hoping Students' Union had a weiner roast at the Milk River bridge last week and had a wonderful time. Each student was allowed to bring a guest and there were about 30 there including some parents. The evening was spent around the fire in a sing song.

The Farmers' picnic which was to be held at Writing-On-Stone had to be cancelled on account of rain. This was also to have been the annual school picnic. The school picnic will now be held at the school on Monday.

The principal of Hoping School, Mr. Peters says he will not be returning next year. The students will miss him.

The C.W.L. held a weiner and sauer kraut supper at Hoping, the funds to go toward furnishing a room in the new Elderly Citizens' home in Medicine Hat.

The Thistle Ridge Club met last Wednesday with a good attendance of members.

Fey and Shirley Douglas are going to sing in the talent-hunt competition at Coutts this week. They will be accompanied by Arvid and Howard Norlin.

Mrs. John Harty is a patient in St. Michaels Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lynes motored to Lethbridge on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Bough motored to Medicine Hat on Saturday.

Barry Hogen of Kimberley is spending the summer with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. E. Lynes.

We had begun to think Nemiscam was the forgotten town. The neighboring towns had wheat quotas for some time, but not Nemiscam. They say everything comes to those that wait so we waited (we couldn't help ourselves) and were rewarded with a one bushel quota. The main road, was rough and cut-up but with all the trucks hauling by Tuesday night it was in pretty good shape.

Mr. Ole Johnson is a patient in St. Michaels hospital.

Mrs. D. Johnson is the proud mother of a baby boy. They are in the Taber hospital.

It is rumored that Bower's cash box was found south of Etzikom in a pasture and some bills found west of town. Maybe the burglars will be tracked down yet.

Prevention is Better

Diphtheria, once a common and often fatal disease among children, is now much rarer and not nearly so lethal. The lowered incidence and death rate can justly be credited to the practice of toxoid immunization in Canada. Immunization is simple but practically one hundred per cent effective.

RATHER BE ALONE

"Is Bob a confirmed bachelor?"
"He is now. He sent his picture to a Lonely Hearts club and they sent it back with a note saying: Were not that lonely."

The salad is as important in winter as it is in summer—perhaps more so, since there is not the same profusion of fresh fruits and vegetables during the cold months. Pleasant variety in salads can be achieved by experimenting with various raw vegetables, grated or diced to introduce a new flavor.

Piano making is a $2,000,000 a year industry in Canada.

The pressures developed within the General Motors Unit Fuel Injector — approximately 30,000 pounds a square inch — is equal to pressures found at 12 miles below the surface of the sea.

The Hyatt Bearing Division of General Motors has built a higher machine to test bearings at speeds up to 40,000 revolutions a minute. If you want an idea of how fast that is, watch a record player with a 45 rpm record on it, and then multiply that speed by almost 1,000.
